City holds grand opening for Orange Terrace Park

RIVERSIDE, Calif. – The city's newest ball fields will be broken in at 9:30 a.m., Saturday, with a grand opening of the Orange Terrace Community Park Expansion project.

The $7-million expansion project includes two new baseball/softball fields, two basketball courts, a state-of-the-art playground, a 2.6-acre meadow, snack bar, children's water play area and more than 300 new parking spaces. The expansion was a Riverside Renaissance project. The Renaissance is a $1.7-billion, five-year investment program to repair infrastructure and improve quality of life services for Riverside residents.

After the morning grand opening Saturday, the Orangecrest Little League, Orangecrest Pony League and the Orangecrest Girls' Softball Association will hit the fields for regular league play.

The grand opening ceremony will include refreshments, family activities and entertainment.

For more information, call Jessica Rodriguez of the City Parks, Recreations and Community Services Department, (951) 826-2016.
